A clandestine and passionate encounter between two men in avoidance of their true desires ignites their wildest impulses and reveals the darkest sides of humanity.

SYNOPSIS

Billy and Tony meet up for a clandestine and passionate sexual encounter. But once the deed is done and the alcohol has already served its purpose, their real intentions slowly start to unravel, revealing a reality much more twisted, sinister, and heartbreaking than we ever imagined.

ITZIAR MARTINEZ / DIRECTOR

Whether touring the world as a dancer, or singing and writing songs for successful projects, storytelling has always been at the center of her creative passion. Which inevitably led her to the Seventh Art.

Itziar was part of the small production team that created the award-winning soundtrack for the Disney Channel series VIOLETTA, which sold more than 1 million records. The European tour alone sold more than 1.2 million tickets for 182 shows performed in 12 countries. Translated into 15 languages, it became Disney Channel's most successful non-American television series.

As an actress, her credits include the series THE MYSTERIOUS BENEDICT SOCIETY, JANE THE VIRGIN, LOUIE, as well as major productions for the Telemundo network.

Under her production company WOL Entertainment, she co-produced and co-wrote NEREUS. A supernatural thriller that premiered on HBO's NYLFF and received distribution in more than 20 territories, including VOD in North America and in theaters in Turkey and Japan. Her directorial debut A HEART DIES TWICE was an Official Selection of the 2021 NFMLA sponsored by the Film Academy and won Best New Director at the Toronto International Women's Film Festival.

She is currently developing a bilingual fantasy drama which was selected at the Fanpitch section of Sitges International Fantastic Film Festival 2022 and their Showrunner's Lab.
